Re: United States v. David Britt, 18-cr-36 (JPO)

Dear Judge Oetken:

We represent David Britt in the above-captioned matter. We write to request two modifications to the terms of Mr. Britt's pretrial release. We have contacted the Government and Pretrial Services and neither objects to these modifications.

First, the son of a close family friend of Mr. Britt will be married over Memorial Day weekend in San Luis Obispo, California. With the Court's permission, Mr. Britt would like to fly to San Luis Obispo with a layover in Phoenix, Arizona and to fly back out of Los Angeles. We respectfully request that the Court modify the terms of Mr. Britt's pretrial release to allow him to travel to the District of Arizona and the Central and Southern Districts of California, as well as any other district through which Mr. Britt's flights may be rerouted or rebooked due to inclement weather or other unanticipated airline issues, between May 26, 2018 and May 29, 2018 in order to attend the wedding. Neither the Government nor Pretrial Services objects to this request.

Second, Mr. Britt is currently authorized to travel to North Carolina, where one of his daughters is attending college. Mr. Britt's son and other daughter, currently seniors in high school, have been accepted to and plan to attend colleges in California and Massachusetts in the fall. In light of this development, we respectfully request that the Court modify the terms of Mr. Britt's pretrial release to permit travel to the District of Massachusetts as well the Northern, Central, and Southern Districts of California in order to attend pre- and post-enrollment college functions, visit his children, and move them in. Neither the Government nor Pretrial Services objects to this request.

Sincerely,

/s/

Melinda Haag
